Appellate Division Justice Peter H. Moulton Appointed to Judicial Conduct Commission

Hon. Peter H. Moulton, a Justice of the Appellate Division, First Department, has been appointed to the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct by Chief Judge Rowan D. Wilson.

Justice Moulton, a graduate of Stanford University and Columbia University School of Law, was elected to the Supreme Court in 2014 and appointed to the Appellate Division in 2017. He has had several leadership positions within the court system, including Administrative Judge for Civil Matters of the First Judicial Department and Coordinating Judge for the New York City Asbestos Litigation. He began his judicial service in 2004 as a Judge of the New York City Civil Court, where he served as Supervising Judge in New York County from November 2010 to January 2014.

Prior to taking the bench, Justice Moulton was principal law clerk to Justice Leland DeGrasse, worked as a litigator for the Affirmative Litigation Division of New York City's Corporation Counsel and served as Law Clerk to U.S. District Judge Charles E. Stewart, Jr.

Justice Moulton fills a vacancy on the Commission created by the retirement last week of Appellate Division Justice Anil C. Singh, who had served since 2023.

Additional information on Justice Moulton and the other members of the Commission can be found on the Commission's website: www.cjc.ny.gov or Commission Members.

Background on the Commission

The Commission was established in 1978 by the New York State Constitution to review complaints of misconduct and disability against judges and justices of the State Unified Court System and, where appropriate, to discipline publicly those judges found to have engaged in misconduct.

The Commission is composed of 11 members, all of whom serve without pay. The Governor appoints four members (two of whom must be non-lawyers/non-judges), the Chief Judge of the State of New York appoints three members (all of whom must be judges) and the four leaders of the State Legislature appoint one each.

The Commission has a full-time staff operating from offices in New York City, Albany and Rochester.
